

I wanted to let you know my frustration at the NAB's attempt at limiting satellite radio's ability to report local information. I see this as not different than a new local radio station moving into an area and providing the same information. This is nothing more than a waste of resources and money.